

Hallandale Beach Fire Rescue
121 S.W. 3rd Street
Hallandale Beach, FL 33009
Emergency 9-1-1 Non-Emergency (954) 457-1470

Acting Fire Chief

Mark Ellis

Chief Ellis joined us in the Fire Department in April of 2012 as the Division Chief of Emergency Medical Services. Mark retired from the City of Hollywood Fire Department after 25 years of service and holds State certifications as an Instructor III, Live Fire Training Instructor, ACLS and BLS Instructor, Rescue Diver, and Emergency Vehicle Operator (EVOC) Instructor. A South Florida native, Chief Ellis graduated from Miami Norland Senior High, then went on to obtain his AS degree in Emergency Medical Services from Broward College, his B.A. in Organizational Leadership and his Master's degree in Executive Management, both from St. Thomas University.

He has been Acting Fire Chief as well as EMS Chief since April 2014. He is a professor at St. Thomas University and a Paramedic Clinical Instructor with Broward College's EMS Department. He also serves on the FL-5 Disaster Medical Assistance Team (DMAT) and had the honor of representing Hallandale Beach Fire Rescue during the Hurricane Sandy Mission in Long Beach, New York.

Hallandale Beach Fire Rescue

Mission Statement

"The Hallandale Beach Fire Rescue Department is dedicated to protect the lives and property of its citizens and visitors through prompt and professional delivery of public education, fire prevention, emergency intervention, and disaster management."
